

Mairi's Wedding

T
O
P

- First couple turn by the right hand, cast off one place on their own side and turn by the left hand to face first corners.
- First couple dance half a reel of four with the first corner (first corners change places)
- First couple dance half a reel of four with the second corners (second corners change places)
- First couple dance half a reel of four with the first corners (first corners change places back to original positions)
- First couple dance half a reel of four with the second corners (second corners change places back to original positions. First couple end up in second position on own side.
- First lady dances a reel of three with the second couple while first man dances reel of three with the third. First couple ends up in second position on their own side.
- All three couples dance circle round to the left and back.